"Special" School

Chapter 1 by PyromaniacSoap

In the middle of June, I have to return to my school. People seem to think negatively when they hear the word "special" in front of the word school. They seem to think that it means that the people attending have some sort of handicap. You see, that's just not true. The only thing special is the fact that we get to build, train, and ride our own DR4gOn5's. These are life-size mechanical dragons that have the most state of the art AI possible. This is what we call "Special" School, and it's my home away from my home.

Chapter 2 by Levi-Chu

It's my second year of highschool in this, " Special School".

This school has all types of people. Most of them are social and outgoing. While a few tend to hang in the back with their DR4gOn5's

Im one of those. My DR4gOn5 is one made of smooth marble concentrate and she is a very intelligent AI. Most AI's adapt to what their 'owner' is like.

I'm quiet so she's quiet.

I'm calm so she's calm.

I'm smart so she's smart.

In the beginning of school year the second years are supposed to show around the new kids. I wondered who I would get.
